

Heavy Tears

E A B E A B E A

E B
One day you're happy, the next day you're blue
E A B
You feel like the whole world's coming right down on you
E B
There ain't nothing wrong, but then there ain't nothing right
A B E
It's just the kind of thing that keeps you up all night

CHORUS:

A E C#m B
Heavy tears in your eyes
A B E
Lord, don't they hurt you when you cry
A B E C#m B
Heavy tears in your eyes
A E/G# F#m 7add4
And when they hit the ground
E A
Don't they make a terrible sound

B E A B E
Maybe she loves you, and maybe it's a joke
And maybe that fire was just a whole lot of smoke
You don't feel warm, but then, you don't feel cold
You're just getting weary, you're just getting old

CHORUS

B E G#m C#m
And your mind can't take this worry
B
And your heart feels underfed
A G#m C#m
Maybe you'll wake up tomorrow
A B
Or maybe you'll just stay in bed

Don't call the doctor and ask his advice
'Cause he's felt the same way himself, once or twice
There ain't no cure for the tear in your eye
You just got to sit there you just got to cry

CHORUS
